

Great turn out at NWRC Business Breakfast event

We had a great turn out at our Business Breakfast event which was held in North West Regional College's (NWRC) Flying Clipper Restaurant.

Thanks again to our speakers, Gavin Killeen, Managing Director of Nuprint, Emily McCorkell, owner of Lo & Slo and to all our guests for taking part and making the event a success.

Newtownstewart farming company develops range of AR user manuals with help from NWRC

Newtownstewart farm machinery company, Hood Engineering & Agri Parts, has created a range of AR based User Manuals for their new hitching components with help from North West Regional College (NWRC) Business Support Centre (BSC)

Click here to register your interest

News In Brief

Burnfoot Engineering company upskills with NWRC

E&I Engineering employees recently completed advanced technical upskilling in electrical principles, computer networking & plc.

Official Premises Opening for NWRC Foodovation client

NWRC Foodovation client, WithLoveRecipes, officially opened their new premises in the Skeoge Road Industrial Estate earlier this month.

Would you like up to 75% worth of funded training for your business from DfE?

Skills Focus is a funding initiative by the Department for the Economy for private businesses with less than 250 staff who are based in Northern Ireland. Some of the courses that are eligible for Skills Focus Funding and are commencing in January and February 2020 are:

- > Level 3 ILM Leadership & Management
- > Level 3 Personal Trainer / Exercise Referral
- > Level 2 Digital Marketing
- > Level 2 Door Supervisor
- > Level 2 & 3 Electric Vehicle

Click here to register your interest

Would you like up to 60 hours worth of fully-funded mentoring training?

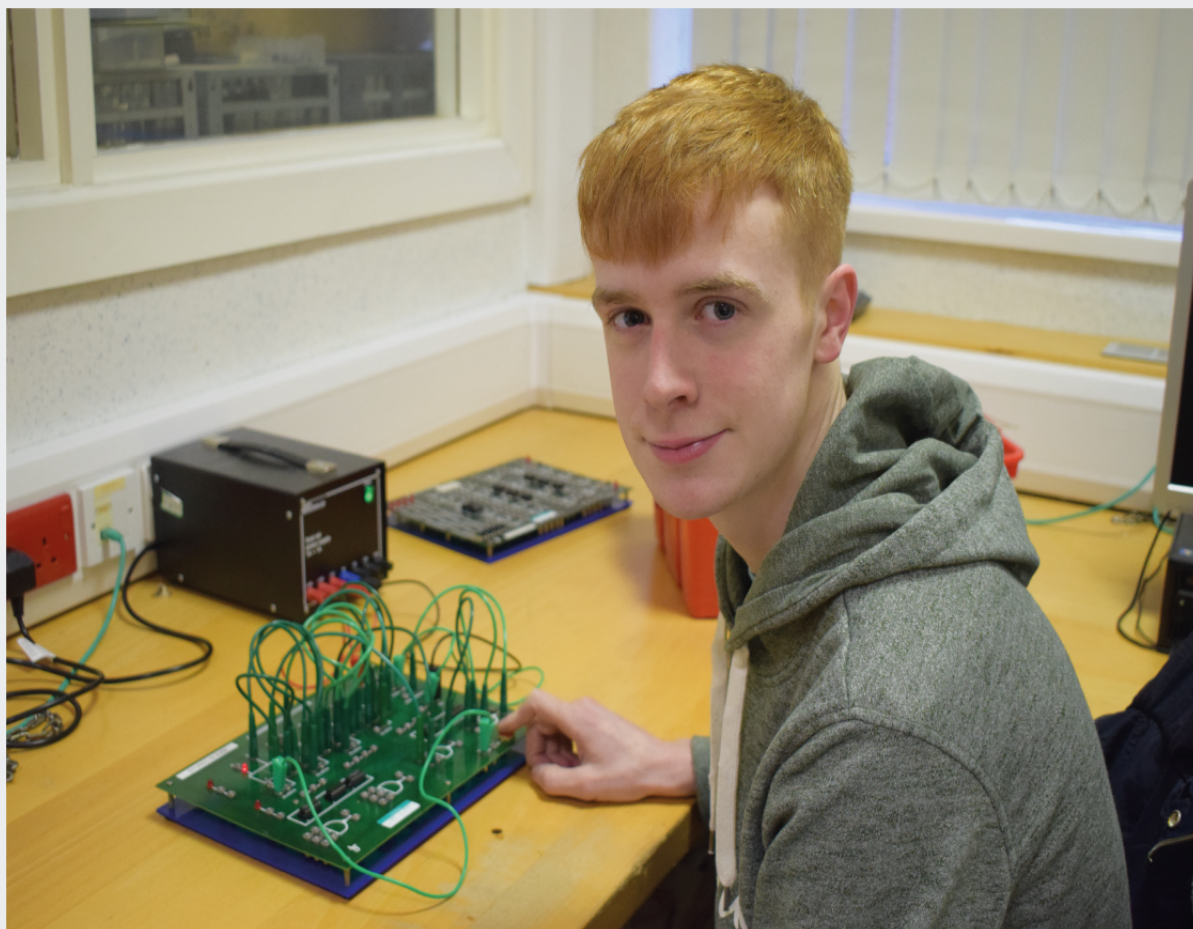

The Department for the Economy funded InnovateUs programme provides up to 60 hours worth of fully-funded mentoring training for the development of a new product or service.

We can help you if you have less than 50 employees and have an innovative project idea in areas such as:

- > Engineering
- > Product Design
- > Creative & Digital Media
- > Food & Drink Product Development
- > Electronics
- > ICT/ Software Development

Click here to register your interest

Would you like to fill your skills gaps and bring new ideas to your business?

Higher Level Apprenticeships (HLA) at NWRC offer many benefits to the employer such as; filling higher level skills gaps, attracting a higher calibre of staff, increasing productivity, developing existing staff.

Click here to register your interest

The North West Regional College Business Support Centre are here to help your business through upskilling, reskilling, innovation, research and development.

Telephone: 02871276170 | Email: businesssupport@nwrc.ac.uk

Subscribe

Unsubscribe

