Would you like Support & Up-skilling for your Food Business?

North West Regional College (NWRC) is a high quality provider of specialist training and up skilling to the Food, Hospitality and Catering Sector. Each year the College works with a wide range of employers to up-skill and retrain through participation in master classes and tailored courses to meet the needs of their business. The College works closely with the Department for Employment and Learning to secure funding to support a range of accredited programmes on behalf of employers. This enables us to deliver up-skilling programmes onsite at a time that meets the needs of your business.
